...the VOICE of Psychiatry in NC

The NC Psychiatric Association represents psychiatrists from Murphy to Manteo.

Members receive personalized attention and assistance from NCPA Staff to help navigate professional questions and concerns

NCPA sends alerts and notices about information you need on laws, regulations, reimbursements, and non-clinical issues including federal and state healthcare reforms, electronic medical records, telepsychiatry, Medicare, Medicaid and more.

Members also enjoy discounts to CME programs, insurance benefits, as well as access to members-only publications like the print and electronic newsletters and website.

But what NCPA is most proud of is our ability to make sure psychiatrists have a seat at the table. NCPA has two lobbyists who advocate for our members and actively monitor legislation, policy meetings, and stakeholder committees and coalitions to make sure you are represented and your patients are taken care of.

Our power to advocate for our profession and our patients strengthens with each member's support and involvement.

Through Your NCPA Membership, You Support the Voice of Psychiatry in North Carolina.
