• What first comes to mind when you think about your retirement?
• What would you most like to do in retirement?
• What is your greatest concern about retirement?
• If you became a role model in retirement, what would you most want to model and how would you go about doing it?